

University of Southern Denmark Sønderborg

Meet
Mark,
Sara and all the rest of us

” The international study environment is quite unique. Each and every one of us has the freedom and close support to develop the particular skills that we require ”

Sara

Welcome to Denmark's most international campus

” As a student of Mechatronics, I'm receiving great preparation for an exciting and international career through close collaboration with the region's major global enterprises. ”

Alec

The University of Southern Denmark in Sønderborg is Denmark's most international campus, boasting students from more than 50 countries. So if you're planning an international career as an engineer, you've come to the right place!

The unique international study environment is perfect for students who wish to be more than just a faceless statistic; instead, you'll be an important part of an exciting, active and vibrant environment.

You'll get close to your fellow students and to dedicated lecturers in small groups, in study groups and via a wealth of social activities.

You'll quickly experience the university's strong sense of community and get to know other students on a range of different courses and from all parts of the world.

Boost your career

When choosing a programme of engineering at SDU Sønderborg, you're also choosing an education that has close connections to life in the outside world. Sønderborg has Denmark's second highest concentration of industrial places of employment, which are always on the lookout for the skills that you'll be acquiring at SDU.

You'll therefore find it easy to get an interesting and relevant student job where your thoughts and ideas will be turned into tomorrow's solutions.

The close collaboration between SDU Sønderborg and these enterprises on aspects such as research projects, work placement and student jobs gives your course of study particular weight.

During your time at the university you'll thus be able to establish an important network that will boost your career and open the doors to a future on the global scene.

” I love Sønderborg - the town, the water, the countryside and the people who live here. There's always something going on. And Flensburg is just a short bus ride away. ”

Life at a hall of residence -

cool accommodation

quality of life

In Sønderborg accommodation for students is guaranteed. This means that as a student you're assured of the type of accommodation that suits you best. Sønderborg's seven halls of residence offer great rooms and larger apartments if you're not on your own. The facilities are good, and you can look forward to a great social life.

You live with students from all over the world on your doorstep and are free to choose from a wide range of social activities.

Student life in Sønderborg isn't just great - it's also cheap! There's easy access to cheap accommodation and relevant student jobs, in addition to discounts at cafés, sports clubs and much more. This means that you can also afford to enjoy life to the full.

You won't get bored in Sønderborg!

In Sønderborg there's always something new to discover and experience - the town offers as many events and cultural attractions as there are days in the year. This applies to everything from local bands to international superstars, from cafés to gourmet restaurants, from little league to elite handball, from pleasant walks to extreme sport, from farm shops to shopping centres, from cinemas to bookstore cafés, from street art to major exhibitions and from intimate concerts to music festivals. And we could go on...

At the same time, Sønderborg has more than 700 voluntary associations and sports clubs that enable you to indulge your particular interest.

Last, but not least, Sønderborg has a great location at the gateway to the rest of Europe - just a stone's throw from the Danish-German border and the metropolises of Hamburg, Flensburg and Kiel, which all offer a wealth of attractions and adventures.

” Student accommodation in Sønderborg is great - fun and social. I've made friends from all over the world... right on my doorstep ”

Christian
