Pharmaceutical Economic topics at SDU

Organizers: Post Doc Gisela Hostenkamp, University of Southern Denmark
Associate Professor Christian Kronborg University of Southern Denmark

Venue: University of Southern Denmark
Campusvej 55, 5230 Odense M, Denmark
Room: O98

Date: Thursday 6th to Friday 7th of November, 2014

Website: Pharmaceutical economics

The workshop is organized by the Centre of Health Economic Research (COHERE). The purpose of the workshop is to enhance the scholarly exchange of young and more experienced researchers within this field and to strengthen pharmaceutical economic research in Odense and its international visibility. This workshop intends to bring together researchers working at the forefront of research within pharmaceutical economics in Europe.

The papers should pay particular attention to pharmaceutical economic topics that are of policy relevance. Preference will be given to papers that comprise empirical analyses and use large population registers.

The keynote speaker is Prof. Kurt Brekke, Norwegian School of Economics.

The workshop will last for one and a half days. The number of participants is limited to 25, with a maximum of 12 invited and contributed papers. The workshop program, travel and accommodation assistance will be provided on the workshop webpage.

The workshop is organized by COHERE at the University of Southern Denmark. Participation is free of charge and includes registration, lunch, and refreshments. Participants are expected to cover their own transportation and accommodation costs. However, registration is obligatory and participants without own contributions are expected to serve as assigned discussants and all participants are expected to actively participate in the general discussions. A list of participants and the titles of their presentations can be found below.

Participants should register no later than October 20th 2014 by sending an email to gih@sam.sdu.dk indicating which of the papers they would like to discuss. Please include contact information and whether you have special dietary restrictions.

Looking forward to seeing you in Odense!
