

Professors

Professor, LL.M., PhD

Jane Bolander. LL.M. 1990 (AU), PhD degree in 1999 (ASB) with the thesis Taxation of General Remissions of Debt. JB researches in Tax Law.

Professor, lic.jur. (SJD), LL.M.

Nis Jul Clausen. LL.M. 1978 (AU), Master of Law LL.M. 1985 (Duke University, USA), lic.jur. (SJD) 1987 with the thesis Financiering via selskabsopsplitning (Financing by Splitting up Companies) (AU). NJC makes research within Securities and Capital Market Law as well as Company and Finance Law.

Professor, lic.jur. (PhD)

Søren Friis Hansen. LL.M. 1991 (KU), lic.jur. (PhD degree) in 1995 (KU) with the thesis Europæisk koncernret (European Concern Law). SFH makes research primarily within Danish and European Company Law.

Professor, LL.D.

Frederik Harhoff. LL.M. in 1977 (KU), LL.D. in 1993 (KU). FH researches within the Law of Nations and International Human Rights. On leave in connection with his UN job for the International Criminal Court in The Hague.

Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Nina Dietz Legind. B.Sc. in Business Law 1990 (Odense University) and M.Sc. in Business Law in 1993 (AAU). PhD in 2002 with the thesis Privat kaution – behovet for en kodifikation af privat kaution for banklån (Private Surety – the Need for a Codification of Private Sureties for Bank Loans) (SDU). Research within the branch of Property Law called Credit Law.

Professor, LL.M., PhD

Bent Ole Gram Mortensen. LL.M. 1986 (AU). Acquired in 1998 the PhD degree at AU with the thesis: Elforsyning – afvejning af hensyn i en sektor på vej mod det indre marked (Power Supply – Considerations to be taken in a Sector heading for the Internal Market). BOGM's research focuses on aspects of Energy Law, Environmental Law and Marketing Law.

Professor, lic.jur. (PhD)

Hans Viggo Godsk Pedersen. LL.M. 1975 (KU), lic.jur. (PhD degree) 1985 (AU) with the thesis Om ejerpantebreve og skadesløsbreve – med særlig vægt på skyldserklæringer og indtrædelsesret (On Mortgage and Indemnity - specifically Admission of Debts and entering into Rights). HVG P makes research within Finance and Credit Law as well as Family and Succession Law.

Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Michael Steinicke. M.Sc. in Business Law 1998 (AAU). Acquired his PhD degree with the thesis Varernes frie bevægelighed og offentlige indkøb (Free Movement of Goods and Public Procurement) in 2001 (SDU). MS makes research within Danish, European, and International Market and Competitive Law issues.

Associate Professors

Associate Professor, LL.M., PhD

Bugge Thorbjørn Daniel. LL.M. in 1998 (KU), acquired the PhD degree in 2004 with the thesis WTO Adjudication (KU). BT D researches within International Law, World Trade Organization, EU Law and International Dispute Resolution.

Associate Professor, LL.M., PhD

Thomas Elholm. LL.M. (1997). PhD degree in law (2002). Title of the thesis: EU-svig. En studie i dansk strafferet (EU fraud. A Study in Danish Penal Law). Research mainly related to “EU Criminal Law” and substantial Danish Criminal Law.

Associate Professor, Dr.jur. (Bremen) – (German title of LL.D.)

Birgit Feldtmann. Dr. jur. (Bremen). LL.M. in 1994 (Universität Bremen). Acquired the German doctorate degree in 2002 for the thesis, Zwangloses Strafverfahren? – Verfahrensbeendigungen aus Gründen der Opportunität durch die Anklagebehörde in Dänemark aus deutscher Sicht (The Danish Public Prosecutor and the Power of Discretion analysed from a German Perspective) (Universität Bremen). BFE makes research especially within Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure and Comparative Law.

Associate Professor, LL.M., PhD

Ole Hammerslev. B.Sc. in Business Law in 1995 (AU) and LL.M. in 1998 (KU). In 2003 OH acquired the PhD degree in sociology (KU) with the thesis Danish Judges in the 20th Century: A Socio-Legal Study. OH makes research within Sociology of Law and Jurisprudence.

Associate Professor, M.Sc. in Business Economics and Auditing, PhD

Inge Langhave Jeppesen. M.Sc. in Business Economics and Auditing in 1991 (ASB). Acquired the PhD degree in 2004 with the thesis Skatteretlig periodisering (the Allocation of Income and Expenses to a Certain Period of Time) (SDU). ILJ makes research within Tax Law with a special focus on traditional Tax Law.

Associate Professor, LL.M., PhD

Pernille Boye Koch. LL.M. 1997 (KU), acquired her PhD degree in 2002 with the thesis Forfatningskontrol – fremtidige perspektiver og udfordringer (Constitutional Control – Future Perspectives and Challenges) (KU). PBK deals in her research with the Role and Functions of the Judiciary, Constitutional Control, Standing to raise Constitutional Issues, Judicial Review and Freedom of Religion.

Associate Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Karsten Naundrup Olesen. M.Sc. in Business Law 1995 (AAU). PhD in 2003 with the thesis Samfundsloddet – obligationsretten og kontrakter af samfundsmæssig interesse (– on Law of Obligations and Contracts of Public Interest) (AAU). Research primarily within: Contract Law, general and special Law of Obligations, the interaction between Public and Private Law and legal issues in relation to Public Procurement.

Associate Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Susanne Pedersen. M.Sc. in Business Law in 1990 (ASB), PhD in 1995 with the thesis Sambeskatning i koncernforhold – en belyst samt en vurdering af det danske sambeskatningsinstitut (On Group Taxation) (Southern Denmark School of Business). Special area of interest is Taxation of Self-Employed and Taxation of Companies and Funds.

Associate Professor, Dr. Juris (Oslo) – (Norwegian title of LL.D.)

Kristina Maria Siig. LL.M. 1995 (AU). Obtained her doctorate of law –Dr. Juris – in 2003 at the University of Oslo, Norway, defending her thesis Arbitration Agreements in a Transport Law Perspective. Research is mainly within areas of law connected with International Trade, such as Maritime and Transport Law and International Arbitration.

Associate Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Peter Starup. M.Sc. in Business Law in 2001 (ASB). PS acquired the legal PhD degree in 2005 with the thesis EF-traktatens art. 39 og 43 som forbud mod ikke-diskriminerende medlemsstatslovgivning (The EC Treaty Art. 39 and 43 as Banning against Non-Discriminating Member State Legislation) (ASB). PS makes research especially within EU Law and Alien Law.

Assistant Professors and Research Assistants

Assistant Professor, PhD

Jane Ferniss. Tax Auditor – the Diploma Programme of the State Tax Administration (1988). Spearhead education in company tax law in 1998 (DFH). JF acquired in 2006 the PhD degree with the thesis Det skatteretlige driftsomkostningsbegreb – særligt grænsedragningen mellem driftsomkostninger og udgifter til etablering og udvidelse af et indkomstgrundlag og grænsedragningen mellem driftsomkostninger og private udgifter (The Concept of Operation Costs in Tax Law – Delineation between Operation Costs and Cost incurred in relation to the Establishing and Expansion of an Income Base and on the Delineation between Operation Costs and Private Expenses) (SDU). JF makes research within Tax Law.

Assistant Professor, M.Sc. in Business Law, PhD

Camilla Hørby Jensen. M.Sc. in Business Law in 2004 (SDU), acquired her PhD with the thesis Retsfortabende passivitet (Loss of Rights by Passivity) within the Law of Contracts and Torts in 2008 (SDU). CHJ researches within Contracts and Torts, especially Credit Law.

Assistant Professor, LL.M., PhD

Jakob Juul-Sandberg. LL.M. 2000 (AU). JJS defended his thesis: Det lejedes værdi (The Value of the Premises) in June 2007 and is now employed as assistant professor specializing in Tenancy Law.

Assistant Professor, LL.M., PhD

Kenneth Melancton Nielsen. LL.M. in 2004 (AU). From August 2005 employed as a PhD student at SDU. His PhD project deals with ansvarsreglerne i privat, international luftret (The Regime of Liability in Private, International Air Law).

Assistant Professor, LL.M., PhD

Jeppe Rowlandson Stokholm. LL.M. 2001 (KU). Acquired in 2007 his PhD degree with the thesis EU-retternes diskriminations- og restriktionsforbud på området for direkte skatter (Discrimination and Restriction Vetoing at the Area of Direct Taxes) (SDU). JRS makes research in Tax and Company Law, including them in EU Matters of Law.

Assistant Professor, PhD Student, LL.M.

Malene Rowlandson Stokholm. LL.M. in 2001 (KU), LL.M. (Monash University, Australia) in 2000. Acquired her PhD degree in 2008 with the thesis Patent Law, Biotechnology and Ethical Considerations – A legal Analysis of Article 6 of Directive 98/44/EC on the Legal Protection of Biotechnological Inventions (SDU).

Research Assistant, LL.M.

Rikke Gottrup. LL.M. 2000 (KU). From October 2006 employed as a postgraduate fellow at SDU with a PhD project within Administrative Law. The subject is the so-called “Ex Officio Inquiry” Principle: De retlige rammer for det forvaltningsretlige officialprincip (The Legal Framework of the Administrative Ex Officio Inquiry Principle).

Research Assistant, M.Sc. Political Science

Kent Kristensen. Employed as a postgraduate fellow at the Department of Law in October 2006. KK works at a thesis with the working title Sygehusmyndighedens styringsbeføjelser og lægers ansvar (The Management Rights of the Hospital Authorities and the Responsibility of The Medical Profession).

Research Assistant, LL.M.

Tanja Larsen. LL.M. in 2003 (AU). Employed as a PhD student in 2005 and working on a thesis with the title Værne- tingsaftaler i internationale kommercielle konflikter (Choice of Court Agreements in International Commercial Disputes).

Research Assistant, M.Sc. in Business Economics and Auditing

Troels M. Lilja. B.Sc. in Business Law in 2002 (SDU). M.Sc. in Business Economics and Auditing in 2004 (SDU). Since October 2006 TML has been a PhD student at SDU. TML is researching Company Law, Tax Law, EC Law and Accounting Law. The research has got the working title: Filialer – En komparativ analyse af den gældende retsstilling (Affiliates – a Comparative Analysis).

PhD Students and Postgraduate Fellows

PhD Student, LL.M.

Lissi Andersen. LL.M. in 2003 (AU). As from May 2008 PhD student at SDU. LA's PhD project has the working title Multimodale transporter – juridiske rammebetingelser (Multimodal transports – Legal Framework).

PhD Student, LL.M.

Ulrike Barten. LL.M. in 2003 (University of Glasgow). Since June 2007 PhD student at the Institute of Border Region Studies at SDU and attached to the Department of Law. The PhD project has the working title Self-Determination for Minorities? Power in International Law.

PhD Student, LL.M.

Vibeke Borberg. LL.M. in 1995 (AU). From September 2007 a PhD student at SDU with a project dealing with The Significance of the Press for the Rule of Law. In the project there are law issues shared with journalism, and therefore VB is also attached to the Centre of Journalism at the Department of Political Science and Public Management.

PhD Student, LL.M.

Fenella Billing. LL.M. in 2007 (Monash University, Australia). Employed in June 2009 as a PhD student with Department of Law. FB is researching human rights and criminal law. The subject of her project is globalization, human rights and the investigation of transnational organised crime.

PhD Student, LL.M.

Kenneth Øhlenschläger Buhl. LL.M. in 2000 (KU). In June 2007 attached to the Department of Law as a PhD student. KB is employed at DIMS. He works on a thesis with the working title New Wars – Changing Legal Definitions.

PhD Student, LL.M.

Bo Møller Jensen. B.Sc. in Business Law in 2004 (SDU) and LL.M. in 2006 (SDU). Employed in September 2006 as a PhD student at the Department of Law with the project Politiets rolle som forvaltningsmyndighed (The Role of the Police as Administrative Authority).

SYDDANSK UNIVERSITET
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN DENMARK

§ Department of Law §

Researchers' Profiles

Department of Law

University of Southern Denmark

55, Campusvej

DK-5230 Odense M

Tel.: +45 6550 3250 Fax: + 45 6593 0726

e-mail: law@sam.sdu.dk

www.sdu.dk/law

(August 2009)

Abbreviations inside the folder:

ASB: Aarhus School of Business, AU: University of Aarhus, DFH: Danish School of Public Administration, DIMS: Danish Institute for Military Studies KU: University of Copenhagen, SDU: University of Southern Denmark, AAU: Aalborg University.