

Artificial Intelligence

The focus of the workshop is the political dimension of AI and its impact on society, our interactions with AI in our everyday lives, and how AI redefines philosophical perspectives on knowledge and intelligence.

Event program

Guest lecture (Hybrid: DIAS Aud. + Zoom)

14:00 -14.05 Welcome by Kathrin Maurer

14.05 -14.10 Introduction by Brit Ross Winthereik

14:10-14:50 Zoom lecture by MEREDITH BROUSSARD:

“Public Interest Technology, Artificial Intelligence, and Social Justicee” (screening in auditorium)

14:50-15:15 Q&A – moderated by

Bo Kampmann Walther

Roundtable (Physical: DIAS Aud.)

15:30-17:00 Roundtable discussion moderated by Lila Lee-Morrison and with participation from:

Matilda Arvidsson

Associate Professor in International Law, University of Gothenburg

Bojana Romic

Artist and Media Theorist and Senior Lecturer at Malmö University

Elizabeth Jochum

Associate Professor, Aalborg University

Andreas Refsgaard

Creative Coder and Digital Artist

DECEMBER 9
14:00-17:00 (UTC+1)
SDU 2021

The lecture will be on Zoom and link will be sent upon registration - Register here

The physical part will take place at DIAS Auditorium - Register here

SDU
 Center for Technology and Culture

D·IAS

Event is organized by the Center for Culture and Technology at SDU, the Center for Digital Welfare at IT University Copenhagen, and the Danish Institute for Advanced Studies at SDU. The event is co-funded by the Independent Research Fund Denmark. For information, please contact Kathrin Maurer (Professor mso of Humanities and Technology, Leader of Center for Culture and Technology at SDU): kamau@sdu.dk.