wanting

by Evelina Kvartunaite

I am going to tell you a secret. Everything is about wanting. Everything. Things happen because of people wanting. Watch closely, and you'll see what I mean.

~ David Mitchell

Lately I was wondering if I want art. How much I want it. And what is art? What is the art of life. Art of mistakes. Art of love. If love can be called art at all.

I wonder how much what we create is art and how much just ends up in the pile of those moments when you are looking at your old pictures and thinking "Did I really wear that?!". Someone once said that creativity is allowing yourself to make mistakes. Art is knowing which ones to keep. It totally makes sense to me now.

I also wonder how much space our beings and stories take up in other people's lives, other people's stories. It's beautiful how we end up living in this random universe of magic where some call it fate and some call it coincidence. Which one makes more sense anyway?

I hope your summer opened your eyes to new forms of the art of mistake-making. Never stop wanting more!
