Traveler

Your first time out of the country of your own skin, I didn't bring a map. You always hated that I'd been lucky enough to pick my way through streets I couldn't pronounce to find cathedrals, graveyards. If you were a city, you said, I'd only like to know your suburbs. If you were a city, I said, I'd like to know your poor neighborhoods, your inner parts. Read your graffiti. Drink your tap water. Feel your smog and dirt stick to my sweat. Hear your orchestra of sirens and gunshots. I'd know which of your streets to walk. If you were a city, I'd expect to be robbed.

September 21/22

Hop off the island of Fyn and explore the infamous island of Møn

On the weekend of the 21-22 September we will travel from Funen (Fyn) to the idyllic island of Moen (Møn).

Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity to see this infamous place in Denmark and share the experience with old and new friends.

Following the amazing success of past years' summer adventures in Denmark, including the most recent fabulous trip to Langeland, the International Club is organising another weekend trip to showcase more of Denmark's hidden treasures.

This family friendly trip aims to unveil one of Denmark's most famous landmarks: Møns Klint . These bright chalk cliffs stretch some 6 km from the park of Liselund in the north to the lighthouse in the south. Some of the cliffs fall a sheer 120 m to the sea below. The area around Møns Klint consists of woodlands, pastures, ponds and steep hills. The cliffs are protected as a nature reserve. Some 250,000 people visit Møns Klint each year.

There are clearly marked paths for walkers, riders and cyclists. The path along the cliff tops provides impressive views and leads to steps down to the shore.

We will have an opportunity to spend a whole day visiting the incredible Geocentre as well as a day visiting the nearby beautiful Liseland park and the historical merchant town of Stege.

We will spend the night on the shores of Lake Hunosø, a 15 minute walk from the Cliffs of Møn at Danhostel. All rooms at Danhostel Møns Klint have shared bathrooms. The price for a 4 bed room plus buffet dinner and buffet breakfast is 445 kr (adults) and 295 kr (children over under 12), children under 2 go free. The International Club will cover the cost of transport (bus), but individuals are responsible for the cost of food (lunch both days) and accommodation (which includes dinner and breakfast). The bus will depart ca. 09.00 on Saturday morning and return ca. 16.00 on Sunday afternoon.

Please sign up as soon possible at sgg@sdu.dk
Spaces are limited!

A more detailed programme will be sent nearer the date.

Wine and Nibbles night at Nelle's Coffee & Wine

Nelle's is a must stop for coffee and design lovers and wine aficionados. During the day, there is freshly baked bread and juice on offer. However, in the evening they serve simple plates of great cheeses and charcuterie along with delicious wines from all over the world. Let's spend an evening together in this cosy atmosphere, sampling their menu and getting to know other internationals in Odense.

"The advice I like to give young artists, or really anybody who'll listen to me, is not to wait around for inspiration. Inspiration is for amateurs; the rest of us just show up and get to work. If you wait around for the clouds to part and a bolt of lightning to strike you in the brain, you are not going to make an awful lot of work. All the best ideas come out of the process; they come out of the work itself. Things occur to you. If you're sitting around trying to dream up a great art idea, you can sit there a long time before anything happens. But if you just get to work, something will occur to you and something else will occur to you and something else that you reject will push you in another direction. Inspiration is absolutely unnecessary and somehow deceptive. You feel like you need this great idea before you can get down to work, and I find that's almost never the case." ~ Chuck Close, Author
