As the days go by, filling the year and even the decades, do you define yourself? What makes you happy, and how do you fill in the gaps between yourself and tomorrow?

I really wonder how much do we grow and how many times we are reborn, with all the new wings and aspects of ourselves, over the years. I hope it's a lot. I hope you learn to see the most important words and the most beautiful encounters that change you for the better.

And then, on top of that, I remembered a quote from Alan Watts: "trying to define oneself is like trying to bite your own teeth". Nevertheless, I do believe that our lives and our choices certainly define, if not necessarily us, but the ways our lives and dreams are shaping, how we are watching ourselves unfolding... like rivers – constantly amazed by own developments.

SDU International Club Trip:

Let the child in you visit Legoland!

Dannebrogsgade 5, Odense C

The SDU International Club is organizing a wonderful trip to Legoland. Legoland in Billund, Denmark, is the largest and oldest LEGO® themed adventure park. It first opened in 1968. The park is divided into nine different worlds:

Duplo Land, Imagination Zone, LEGOREDO Town, Adventure Land, Miniland, Pirate Land, Lego City, Knight Kingdom and Viking Land. The park primarily offers an array of activities geared at young children and families, but also at the child in us. Legoland also offers a wide range of eating facilities to cater for all tastes.

Tickets: Adults 279 kr; Children 3–12: 249 kr

Please sign up now at: sgg@sdu.dk
