

Ecological by Design: A History from Scandinavia

sdu.dk

9 March, 13.15- 14.00, room 41.09, campus Kolding

Guest lecture by Kjetil Fallan, professor of Design History at the University of Oslo

In this talk, professor Fallan will present material and perspectives from his brand new book Ecological by Design: A History from Scandinavia (MIT Press, 2022). The book explores "[h]ow ecological design emerged in Scandinavia during the 1960s and 1970s, building on both Scandinavia's design culture and its environmental movement."
