

FERTILITY CHRONICLES

HISTORIES OF SILENCE, SCIENCE, AND CONTRACEPTION

2 October, 2 pm–3:30 pm, CML Seminar Room (Ø20-405a-1)

How can fertility studies and histories of reproductive technologies help us understand the intersection of science, experiences and technology?

Prof. Tracey Loughran (Essex): 'Silence and Stigma? Searching for Experiences of Involuntary Childlessness'

Anne Nørkjær Bang (SDU): 'On "wish kids" and "gift kids": Depo-Provera and wishing kids (away) in Greenland 1991'

Dr Cecilie Bjerre (SDU): 'From Donor Sperm to Paternal Bond: The History of Assisted Reproductive Technology and Paternity in Denmark'

The workshop will be chaired by Dr Gareth Millward (SDU). All are welcome.