

Where to find that book? Chasing rare texts circa 800-1500

3-4 November 2022

SDU, Adelige Jomfrukloster, Albani Torv 6, Odense

Programme

Thursday, November 3

9:30-11:00

Réka Forrai Introduction

Jesse Keskiaho Finding Patristic Authorities in the Carolingian Age

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:00

Aidan Conti Finding and Loosing Pseudo-Eusebius: Books, Translation and Misattribution

Irene o'Daly The pre- and after-lives of the hunted text: Ciceronian Manuscripts dating from between the 9th and the 12th centuries

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:30

Samu Niskanen Search for books in monastic letter writing of the 11th and 12th centuries

Lars Boje Mortensen Dusting off Carolingian books and the 12th century rediscovery of Curtius Rufus' "Historia Alexandri Magni"

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:30

Dávid Falvay The Inquisitor as Book Hunter: Observant Franciscans and Heretical Books in Italy

Lucie Doležalová Ardent Amateurs: Richard of Bury and Other Late Medieval Bibliophiles in Action

Friday, November 4

9:30-11:00

Pieter Beullens The quest for gems of Greek philosophy in the 13th century

Alessandra Bucossi Bookhunters in Byzantium: selected case studies

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:00

Gottskalk Jensson Latin books in medieval Iceland: What texts did the Icelanders collect and where did they get them

Christian Etheridge Book Culture in the Far North: Investigations into the Library of a 14th Century Norwegian Bishop

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:30

Rosa Rodriguez Porto Networks of privilege: Bookhunting in Italy for Iberian patrons in the 15th century

Marianne Pade Supplementing Gellius in 15th century Italy – the problem of the Greek

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:30

Matteo Rossetti Poggio Bracciolini's discovery of Manilius

Kristian Jensen Searching for manuscripts and running a business: the search for texts and printing in the 15th century