

25 year birthday symposium for Odense University Pharmacoepidemiological Database (OPED)

University of Southern Denmark, Odense
Friday 12th of February 2016
Emil Aarestrup Auditorium, Odense University Hospital,
Søndre Blvd. 29, 5000 Odense C

Program

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 14:00 | Welcome
Jesper Hallas, Professor, MD, DrMedSc
Clinical Pharmacology, University of Southern Denmark |
| 14:10 | Keynote address: Use of prescription databases. How ideas have evolved.
Thomas Macdonald, Professor, MD, PhD
Medical School, University of Dundee, Scotland |
| 14:55 | The conception, birth and infancy of a good idea - and some amazing paleo-techniques in pharmacoepidemiology
Jesper Hallas |
| 15:15 | Break |
| 15:25 | Probing prescriber performance and questioning quality. Measuring quality in prescription databases
Morten Andersen, Professor, MD, PhD
Dept. of Pharmacoepidemiology, Karolinska Institute, Stockholm |
| 15:45 | What is on our mind? Pharmacoepidemiology in neuroscience.
David Gaist, Professor, MD, PhD
Dept of Neurology, Odense University Hospital, Denmark |
| 16:05 | Time to put regional prescription databases to rest? Perspective of a late-comer
Anton Pottegård, Post-doc fellow, MPharmSc, PhD
Clinical Pharmacology, University of Southern Denmark |
| 16:25 | Wrap
Kim Brøsen, Professor, MD, DrMedSc
Clinical Pharmacology, University of Southern Denmark |
| 16:30 | Reception |