

GEM: Game Theory, Economics and Mathematics

8th International Workshop

October 3-4 2019

University of Southern Denmark at Odense

Program

Thursday October 3rd

9:00 - 9:10 Arrival

9:10 - 9:15 Welcome

9:15 - 10:45 Session 1

Jose Zarzuelo (Universidad del Pais Vasco)
Some solutions for bargaining problems with claims

Marco LiCalzi (Università Ca' Foscari Venezia)
Learning across Prisoners' and Hunters' Games

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-12:30 Session 2

Michel Grabisch (Paris School of Economics)
Diffusion on large networks

Marina Nuñez (Universitat de Barcelona)
Valuation monotonicity, fairness and stability in assignment problems

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:45-15:15 Session 3

Agnieszka Rusinowska (Paris School of Economics)
Winning Coalitions in Plurality Voting Democracies

Trine Tornøe Platz (Copenhagen Business School)
QALY, DALY, HYE and more: a unified approach

15:15-15:30 Coffee break

15:30-17:45 Session 4

Leanne Streekstra (SDU)

Stable source connection and assignment problems as time-varying shortest path problems.

Sibilla di Guida (SDU)

Plasticity of strategic sophistication in interactive decision-making

Huanren Zhang (SDU)

Cooperation under the Shadow of Inequality

18h00-18h15 Small Reception

18:15-18:45 Piano concert by Michel Grabisch

20:00 Dinner at Kok & Vin

Friday October 4th

9:15 - 9:25 Arrival

9:30 - 11:00 Session 1

Carlos Hervés-Beloso (Universidade de Vigo)

On equilibria and cores for production economies with externalities and tradable licenses

Andres Salamanca (SDU)

Random dictatorship and the value in cooperative games with incomplete information

11:00-11:15 Coffee break

11:15-12:45 Session 2

Emma Moreno-García (Universidad de Salamanca)

On the private provision and use of public goods

Luc Doyen (Université de Bordeaux)

The Tragedy of Open Ecosystems

12:45-13:45 Lunch