

2nd SDU Workshop on Economic and Business History

March 14th, 2018

Room: Meeting room 6, Department of History

11:15-11:30 Welcome

11:30-12:00 Kristoffer Jensen and Jeppe Nevers

‘Multinationals and Globalization: Thoughts on the Danish Experience’

12:00-12:30 Nina Boberg-Fazlic and Paul Sharp

‘Danish Immigrants and the Development of the American Dairy Sector in the Late Nineteenth Century’

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:00 Xanthi Tsoukli

‘Measuring the efficiency of the butter production of the Danish creameries in the early twentieth century’

14:00-14:30 Torben Dall Schmidt

‘Sweet Trade and Old Habits: Some Findings on Privileges and Sugar Trade to Baltic Towns from Three European Trading Hubs’

14:30-15:00 Julian Lamberty

‘Origins and characteristics of the robotics industry on Fyn: An exploration of a narrative of growth, innovation and cooperative robotics’

Presentations should last 20 minutes, allowing 10 minutes for questions and discussion.

Organizers:

Prof. Jeppe Nevers, Centre for Maritime and Business History, Department of History

Prof. Paul Sharp, Historical Economics and Development Group, Department of Business and Economics