

THREE STAR SYMPOSIUM

Thursday, 9 May 2019 at Campus Kollegiet, SDU Odense

The Three Star Symposium is approaching at the speed of light! Allow the explosive keynote to propel us towards new horizons and fresh perspectives that we will subsequently explore in our interactive sessions.

You will also have the opportunity to present your own ideas and receive insightful feedback, all in a friendly atmosphere. We will make sure you'll enjoy the journey - from quality catering to pleasant networking!

Join us!

REGISTER HERE

Program:

08:30 – 09:00	Registration, Coffee and Croissants
09:00 – 09:15	Launch by Hans Frimor (SDU)
09:15 – 10:45	Keynote Speech by James Ohlson (Hong Kong PolyU), “The Three Stars in Empirical Research: Have we Reached our Limit?”
10:45 – 11:00	Coffee
11:00 – 11:45	Interactive Session I by Kim Peijnenburg (EDHEC Paris) “Household Portfolio Underdiversification and Probability Weighting: Empirical Evidence”
11:45 – 12:30	Interactive Session II by Ramon Lecuona Torras (Dartmouth) “Passing the Hot Potato, Above or Sideways? Work flows in Multidivisional Firms”
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:15	Interactive Session III by Kenneth Chu (Hong Kong PolyU) “Accruals and Forecasting”
14:15 – 14:30	Coffee
14:30 – 16:00	Pitch Session I (see below)
16:00 – 16:15	Coffee
16:15 – 17:45	Pitch Session II
17:45 – 18:00	Final remarks

Pitch Sessions:

Present your research ideas (or papers) and obtain immediate valuable feedback by Ohlson & Co
Each pitch consists of 10 minute presentation and 5 minute feedback
Pitch slots are being assigned on a first-come, first-served basis - so register right now!

Contact Person: Hans Frimor (haf@sam.sdu.dk)

*The Three Star Symposium is brought to you by SDU's Center of Finance and Management - a collaboration among the Accounting, Finance, and Strategic Organization Design research groups.
Our Center exists for a single purpose: to advance our disciplines through excellence in research and education, and through meaningful outreach activities.*