WORKSHOP OBJECTIVE AND OVERALL EXPECTATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS

Peer review of advanced draft chapters and practice notes for the Routledge International Handbook on Meaningful Stakeholder Engagement is our main objective. The organisers/editors assign 1 or 2 lead discussants for each chapter. Discussants will read the chapters in detail. Everyone else is expected to have read all chapters at a general level and contribute to all discussions.

SESSION FORMAT AND PARTICIPANT ROLES

- ☐ Session duration: Up to 40 minutes (chapters) or 30 minutes (practice notes);
- ☐ Chair: Introduces the presenter, the discussant and other participants, explains how the session will work, manages time and moderates the session;
- ☐ Presenter: Briefly presents the paper, its key points and contributions to the handbook and the literature (~5-10 min). The presentation can be assisted by PowerPoint slides (if slides are shared with organizers in advance in *.ppt or *.pptx format);
- ☐ Discussants: Provide a critical review of the paper according to the Common Criteria below, comment and provide suggestions for improvements (~8-10 min each); and
- ☐ Other participants: Comment and/or ask additional questions (~ 8-10 min). storing them in a safety deposit box or with a trusted family member so they cannot be used for impulse purchases.

Common criteria for peer-reviews

- ✓ Is the chapter/practice note objective clear?
- ✓ Are the methods explicit and understandable?
- ✓ Are findings grounded in the literature/methods?
- ✓ How would you improve this chapter/practice note?
- ✓ How does the chapter/practice note relate to the Introduction chapter?
- ✓ Who do you think would be the ideal reviewer for the chapter/practice note?
