

Conference on Law and Transitional Society

China-Northern Europe Forum on Judicial Civilization 2015

Venue

School of Law, Wuhan University, Wuhan, Hubei, China

May 15, 2015

Agenda

May 14, 2015
	Arrival and Start of Registration of Participants
May 15, 2015
9:00-9:20 am	Opening Ceremonies Xiao Yongping, Dean, Wuhan University School of Law
9:20 -10:20 am	Session 1 Legal System and Governance CHEN Yubo - The Structure and Trend of Dual Law-abiding System in China during the Period of Transformation Li Qiuyi - Chinese Legal System and Social Transform ZHANG Xin - An Empirical Study of the Mode of Legal Institutional Changes in China during Transition Period: New Media Coverage of Public Events from 2003 to 2013 LI Changgeng - Initiative Reform: the Ideal Choice of Chinese Social Transformation
10:20 - 10:35 am	Tea Break
10:35 - 11:35 am	Session 2 Justice and Rule of Law HU Xia - The Paradigm Shift for The Rule of Law in The Name of Security: In The Context of Transitional China FAN Chuanming - Implementing the Rule of Law in a Transitional Society: The Multiple Choices and Practical Dilemma of Modern China's Litigation Mode Reform

	GUO Chunzhen - Fostering Respect for Process: A Procedural Justice Curriculum Field Experiment in China Bent Ole Gram MORTENSEN - Tribunals/Appeal Boards as an Alternative to Courts: Danish Experiences
11:35 – 1:30 pm	Lunch
1:30 - 2:15 pm	Session 3 Constitution LV Ning - Society-transforming Function of the Constitution CHENG Mai - Meanings and Roles of the Constitutional Consensus: A Research on the Text of Chinese Constitutional Law Hanne PETERSEN - One Country Three Systems: The Case of the Danish Kingdom (Denmark-Greenland-Faroe Islands)
2:15 - 3:30 pm	Session 4 Human Rights Sten SCHAUMBURG-MULLER - Of the Need to Save Human Rights from Liberalism Helle BLOMQUIST - Participation of Women in Local Councils in China and Denmark. A Movement from Below? CHENG Qian - Corporate Human Rights Responsibility and Justice in China: Challenges and Resolutions WU Dezhi - On the Self-legitimization of Human Rights and Its Negative Consequences QI Jiangang - Reconstructing the Governance Structure of China's Food Safety Risk Assessment Organization
3:30 – 3:45 pm	Tea Break
3:45- 4:30 pm	Session 5 Business Law and Economic Law FENG Guo - The Problems of Legal Construction in Innovative Development of China's Bond Market SUN Jin - A Research on Competition Evaluations KANG Lanping - The Ideal and Reality of the Economic Law of China: A Research Based on Its Paradigm Shifts

4:30 pm - 5:15 pm	Special Presentation: Rubya MEHDI - Guidelines for Legal Scholars to Write a Paper for the NNJLSR (Navinen Reet: Nordic Journal of Law and Social Research) Closing Remarks
5:30	Dinner
May 16, 2015
	Departure of Participants