

PROGRAM

Law and Transitional Society: Chinese and Global Perspectives

December 10th 2014

Organized by

Centre for Studies in Legal Culture and Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies,
University of Copenhagen and School of Law, Wuhan University, China
Program: Dr. Rubya Mehdi & Prof. Bent Ole Gram Mortensen

08:30-9:00 Registration

09:00 – 09:30 Welcome and Introduction

Professor of Law Ditlev Tamm

Senior Researcher Rubya Mehdi

- 1. Session: 9:30 -12:30 Legal Reform, The State and Human Rights
Moderator TBA

Toward China's Comprehensive Judicial Reform

Professor Jiang Guohua, School of Law, Wuhan University

Comparing Chinese and European/Danish Legal Cultures after Deng, Thatcher and Reagan

Global normative developments at the end of the 20th century?

Professor of Law Hanne Petersen, University of Copenhagen

Ca. 10:30 Coffee break

The role of law in social governance and community politics

Associate Professor Chunrong Liu, Fudan University,

Vice Director, Fudan-European Center for China Studies

No punishment without Law. But what is "Punishment" and what is "Law"? Reflections on the tension between Human Rights and State Sovereignty

Professor of Law Ragna Aarli, University of Bergen, Norway

Light Lunch 12:30- 13:30

2. Session 13:30 – 16:30 Labour and Energy

Moderator: Professor (China Studies) Jørgen Delman, Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies, University of Copenhagen

The historical legal background of the phenomenon “media adjudication” in Chinese law

Associate professor Xiong Qi

Fundamental Labour Rights and their Implementation - A Transnational Perspective

Professor of Law Ulla Liukkunen, University of Helsinki and the Finnish Center of Chinese Law and Chinese Legal Culture

Ca.14:45 coffee break

Viewing the Labor Law Reform in China from a Perspective of Global Governance

Professor Xu Yawen, School of Law, Wuhan University

Regulating the use of renewable energy in China and Denmark – two approaches

Professor of Law Bent Ole Gram Mortensen, University of Southern Denmark and the Danish Forum for Chinese Law and Legal Culture

Chinese workers' conditions, with the consideration of Chinese overseas investment in Arctic

Lecturer, Senior legal consultant Jingjing Su, Copenhagen

For each speaker 30 minutes presentation and 10 minutes discussion

Farewell Buffet 17-19

Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies

